

Hydrofeminism and wild engagements with ocean/s: Towards a justice-to-come in South African contexts

Save the date
for our upcoming webinar
19 August from 9:00 to 17:00

This webinar brings together a group of South African activists, artists and scholars who are thinking in, with and through the ocean/s and beaches to make alternative knowledge towards justice and flourishing at a planetary level. Located in feminist new materialist, posthumanist and decolonial thinking, the event seeks to reconceptualise the academic project and address social and planetary challenges beyond colonial and patriarchal logics. Inspiring well-known hydrofeminist scholar Astrida Neimanis will be respondent.

Register in advance for this webinar:

<https://bit.ly/3qUG9UV>

Co-hosted by:

- The Andrew W. Mellon New Imaginaries for Gender and Sexual Justice Project,
- National Research Foundation (NRF) Project on Reconfiguring Higher Education: Doing Academia Differently,
- Women's and Gender Studies Department, Faculty of Arts and Humanities, University of the Western Cape.